

Miss. Kane
English 7 and Reading
Required Materials Survival Guide
School year 2016-2017

English 7- Required materials for class:

- Textbook, paperback and/or printouts for work we are studying
- 3 ring Binder and plenty of loose leaf paper for notes (in English and Reading), handouts, and daily journal entries
- Index cards for studying vocabulary terms
- Blue or Black pen for graded assignments-no other colors
- Wite- out quick dry correction fluid

Reading- Required materials for class:

-same 3 ring binder and loose leaf paper used for English class so you can take notes -Blue or Black pen for taking notes

If you prefer to read on a kindle instead of a paperback novel, then please bring your kindle to class with the appropriate novel downloaded (if you use a kindle please note you must follow school policy when using the device)

We will read three novels during the course of this school year. We will begin the school year reading The Outsiders*, by S.E. Hinton. Please bring this book with you for the first day of class.

Miss. Kane
Required Materials Survival Guide
American Literature (Honors and Academic)
School Term 2016-2017

At this point in your school career, you should know what works best for you as far as notebooks and binders etc. are concerned, so use what helps you stay organized. These are items you should bring to class each day:

- textbook or paperback
- handouts from Miss. Kane, MMS, or Google Docs
- something to write with (blue/black pen for all graded assignments-any color you choose for your own notes)
- loose leaf paper or a notebook to take notes (we take a great deal of notes so, come prepared)
- 3-ring binder or folder to keep handouts organized
- wite-out quick dry correction fluid
- index cards to study with for weekly vocabulary terms

This year we will be reading:

tuesdays with Morrie, by Mitch Albom (Please have this novel for the second day of class- paperback or downloaded on a kindle)

The Great Gatsby, by F. Scott Fitzgerald

Fahrenheit 451, by Ray Bradbury

*Please note-if you plan on downloading any of the novels on a kindle you are expected to be following school policy at all times

Please do not buy the novels all at once. I will give your plenty of notice before a novel is needed for class.

Miss. Kane
Required Materials Survival Guide
Senior British Literature (Honors and Academic)
School Term 2016-2017

At this point in your school career, you should know what works best for you as far as notebooks and binders etc. are concerned, so use what helps you stay organized. These are items you should bring to class each day:

- textbook or paperback
- handouts from Miss. Kane, MMS, or Google Docs
- something to write with (blue/black pen for all graded assignments-any color you choose for your own notes)
- loose leaf paper or a notebook to take notes (we take a great deal of notes so, come prepared)
- 3-ring binder or folder to keep handouts organized
- wite-out quick dry correction fluid
- index cards to study with for weekly vocabulary terms

This year, most of our reading comes from the textbook for this course. However, we will begin the year reading And Then There Were None*, by Agatha Christie. Please have this novel for the second day of class (paperback or downloaded on a kindle). *Please note, if you plan on downloading the novel on a kindle you are expected to be following school policy at all times.

